Business Continuity Program

Chapin Davis Investments and Chapin Davis Asset Management are fully owned subsidiaries of Chapin Davis, Inc. and is wholly supported by Chapin Davis business continuity plan.

Chapin Davis has taken the following steps to address the resumption of critical business functions in the event a crisis impacts the firm's ability to function at its primary work site. This is affected through a rigorous and focused recovery plan supported by a comprehensive infrastructure and a secondary production data center site of Loch Raven Boulevard. The key components of recovery are:

- Firm wide crisis management process,
- Thorough departmental recovery plans,
- Periodic departmental/revision/enhancements of plans,
- Scheduled and executed exercises (department and multi-departmental) and
- Internal and external audit validation.

Chapin Davis officers and executive management measure all aspects of recovery against stated recovery goals that are approved. We continue to refine the plan as needed.

Program Structure

Business continuity planning is a company-wide effort that requires the contributions of both business and support function.

- Chapin Davis business teams are responsible for developing, maintaining, testing and updating recovery plans,
- Chapin Davis crisis management team, headed by Chapin Davis CEO, COO, CFO and CCO has crisis management plans that detail high level procedures and guidelines. Each crisis management team member has remote access to key functionality and systems.
- Supporting the crisis management team is First Clearing Correspondent Services, current clearing firm for Chapin Davis; as well as, Schwab Institutional Advisors, TD Ameritrade and Sterne Agee Financial Services, current custodians for the Investment Advisor, Chapin Davis Asset Management.
- Supporting the crisis management team is Total Technology Solutions including communications, PC support, customer support, technological infrastructure, etc...provide for seamless resumption at alternative remote locations that is as transparent as possible to our customers.
- The crisis management team review exercise scripts, results and validation.

Affiliates are companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non-financial companies.*

Non-Affiliates are companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non-financial companies. Chapin Davis does not share with non-affiliates so they can market to you.*

Alternative Work Centers

The primary alternative work center for all Chapin Davis activities can support all identified critical staff providing services to our customers. This is supported by an infrastructure that includes PC's, telephones, printers, fax units, copiers, etc. Also, communication interfaces with key settlement and clearing suppliers and other key business partners are available.

The number of support staff, supporting equipment and communication interfaces are reviewed by the business plan units on an ongoing basis and validated by senior managers.

Exercising the Plans

- Several times throughout the year, each business unit has the opportunity to conduct its own recovery exercises, i.e., desktop validation site visits, connectivity of equipment, configuration of equipment and actual processing at the alternative work centers.
- At least once annually, all business units are required to participate in a coordinated exercise to ensure that the recovery centers can support all required activities.
- In addition, twice annually, computer systems and servers are switched to the alternate site within designated time frames and operated there for a specific period of time to ensure timeliness, connectivity and functionality.
- Walk throughs are completed by departments on an annual basis to ensure that all recovery staff remained trained prior to participation in physical exercises and to ensure that the staff is fully oriented to the disaster procedures.

Contacting Us

If after a significant business disruption you may continue to phone your Registered Representative or Investment Advisor Representative at their direct dial or use our main line, 410-435-3200 and all calls will route appropriately.
